IAN GOULD
Bachelor of Nursing

"I chose to study at the UOW Bega campus because of the University's high standards and its dedication not only to education but to the person.

Attending university close to home means I can work while I study, and I save money by living at home. I've made a lot of new friends at UOW Bega, and studying locally meant I didn't lose the friendships I've spent a life time creating.

Small classes supplement my learning and there are support services on campus; if there's an area you need help with, the staff always point you in the right direction."
