

WATTLE FORUM

‘Click’—Transitioning to Remote Teaching and Learning: Showcasing Best Practice

Date: Thursday 9 July 2020

Time: 1:30-3:30pm AEST

Venue: Online*

*To obtain access password to the online sessions, complete the online registration by 7 July 2020.

PROGRAM

Time	Session	Theme
1:30-1:45	Welcome Theo Farrell, Deputy Vice Chancellor (Education)
1:45-2:15	Student Panel: Students’ experience of remote learning Paul Isaac, Katie Mordue, & Stephanie Rankin
2:15-2:20	LTC- Preparing to Teach Online: Impact and future initiatives Alyce Mason • LTC
2:20-2:30	Break/Changeover
2:30-2:45	A: The importance of social connectivity in the online learning environment: using your Moodle site to engage with students and enhance student learning Jody Moller • SMAH	Site Design
2:30-2:45	B: Delivery and assessment of hands-on biology skills without hands-on practical classes Bethany Hoyer, Johanna Turnbull & Melinda Waterman • SMAH	Assessment & Feedback
2:45-3:00	A: A respite to COVID-19: Finding opportunities in the transition to remote learning Zein Saleh & Emma Heffernan • EIS	Site Design
2:45-3:00	B: Real time quiz for real time learning Tam Ha • SOC Tim Boniface and Josh Hummel • LTC	Assessment & Feedback
3:00-3:15	A: Making life easier through the use of the ‘Progress Bar’ Kellie Buckley-Walter • SOC	Site Design
3:00-3:15	B: ‘Kitchen Oceanography’: Hypotheses and experiments in the COVID-19 Isolation Kitchen Helen McGregor • SMAH	Experiential Learning
3:15-3:30	A: Ideas for improving online learning: A student’s perspective Atheer Alghanmi • SOC	Learner Engagement
3:15-3:30	B: Increasing learner engagement online: Using small group Webex meetings to get students actively involved Nikki Curthoys • SMAH	Group Work
3:30	Closing

