1 Purpose of Policy

1. The University aims to provide an intellectually open, equitable and fair learning experience for all students in accordance with the organisational values contained in the University's Strategic Plan 2020-2025.
2. This policy sets out the approach of the University of Wollongong (UOW) for resolving student issues and concerns in relation to a mark or grade, an academic decision or the application of a policy, that has affected a student's academic progress. The matters which may be considered under this policy are outlined in Section 4.

2 Definitions

Word/Term	Definition (with examples if required)
Academic decision	A decision made by a member of University staff or a University committee, normally under the University's rules or policy, which affects a student's academic progress in relation to their coursework studies or research candidature.
Academic consideration	Academic consideration is intended to help minimise the impact of compassionate, compelling or extenuating circumstances beyond a student's control, which significantly impair a student's ability to complete an assessment task on or by the due date as stipulated in the Subject Outline; or which affects academic progress in a subject relevant to their course of study. Academic consideration may be granted on the basis of compassionate, compelling circumstances and/or extenuating circumstances.
Academic matter	A matter relating to the policy or processes that govern a student's academic experience at the university. Academic matters are usually described in the following policies and procedures: Code of Practice – Research Code of Practice – Work Integrated Learning (Professional Experience) Coursework Rules Credit for Prior Learning Policy Higher Degree Research (HDR) Award Rules Higher Degree Research (HDR) Supervision and Resources Policy Higher Degree Research (HDR) Thesis Preparation, Submission and Examination Policy Honours Policy Standards for the Finalisation of Student Results Student Academic Consideration Policy Supplementary Assessment Procedure Teaching and Assessment: Assessment and Feedback Policy

	Teaching and Assessment: Code of Practice – Teaching Teaching and Assessment: Subject Delivery Policy
Academic misconduct	Conduct of a student when undertaking the preparation, presentation or submission of coursework, or during the course of undertaking research, that is in breach of: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Academic Integrity Policy,• Research Misconduct and Complaints Management Policy,• Code of Practice - Research,• Faculty/unit requirements,• Subject Outlines, or• Other University policy documents or requirements setting out student academic requirements.
Academic progress	Successful completion of subjects towards a degree within established time limits.
Assessment task	An activity which a student is required to complete to provide a basis for an official record of achievement or certification of competence in a subject (e.g. examination, test, take-home examination, quiz, assignment, essay, laboratory report, demonstration, folio of creative work, performance, written or oral presentation, participation, simulation, placement report).
Academic Unit	Also known as a School, Unit, Program or Discipline.
Collaborative Delivery Partner	Another institution or organisation (typically another higher education provider) with which the University has a partnership arrangement, in accordance with the Collaborative Delivery of a UOW Course Policy.
Conflict of interest	Exists where there is a divergence between the individual interests of a staff member and their professional obligation to the University such that an independent observer might reasonably question whether the professional actions or decisions of that person are influenced by their own interests or are for their own benefit. It should be noted that enmity as well as friendship can give rise to perceptions of a conflict of interest and similarly that detriment to a third party can give rise to a conflict of interest just as much as benefit to a third party. A conflict of interest includes an actual, perceived or potential conflict of interest.
Course	A program of study consisting of a combination of subjects and other requirements, whether leading to a specific higher education award or not.
Deferred assessment	An assessment task taken by an eligible student as a result of a student's application for academic consideration, as approved by the relevant Subject Coordinator.

3 Application & Scope - Exclusions or Special Conditions

1. This policy applies to all students undertaking coursework subjects and staff of the University of Wollongong (UOW) as well as those students enrolled in UOW courses delivered in collaboration with a partner institution onshore and offshore.
2. This policy does not apply to students and staff at UOW Dubai and UOW College Australia.
3. This policy makes provision for a student to request a review of an academic decision, action or omission, or appeal the outcome of a review, in relation to:
 - a. an assessment task mark or a final mark and grade awarded in a subject;
 - b. an application for academic consideration;
 - c. an offer of a supplementary assessment;
 - d. credit awarded for prior learning; and
 - e. the application of a reasonable adjustment to an assessment task or subject;
4. This policy also makes provision for a student to request a review of an academic matter that has adversely and demonstrably affected their academic progress. Academic matters are concerned with the application of an academic policy as outlined in the definitions of this policy.
5. This policy does not make provision for the reporting and investigation of alleged research misconduct or alleged academic misconduct; which is managed under the:
 - f. Academic Integrity Policy; and
 - g. Research Misconduct and Complaints Management Policy.
6. This policy does not apply where another policy already provides a review or appeal process, or provides a complaints resolution process, for example in relation to:
 - h. exclusion for failure to meet the minimum rate of course progress;
 - i. general misconduct, including student conduct, staff conduct, discrimination, bullying, harassment or sexual harassment;
 - j. a finding of research misconduct or a finding of academic misconduct;
 - k. admission to a UOW course; or
 - l. fees for subjects and courses.
7. This policy does not apply where a student is seeking to provide general feedback and comments about subjects, courses, teaching, resources, research supervision and other aspects of a student's academic experience.

4 Policy Principles

1. A student who formally requests a review of an academic decision, or any other academic matter as provided for in clause 4.2 of this policy, can expect that:
 - m. their matter will be acknowledged and handled promptly with regard to time limits outlined in the relevant procedures;
 - n. their matter will be treated confidentially and not discussed with anyone who does not need to know about it;
 - o. any relevant circumstances or information they put forward, will be taken into consideration;
 - p. their matter will be handled with regard to procedural fairness and in accordance with principles of natural justice;
 - q. they will be kept informed of what is happening and provided with an outcome in writing;
 - r. they will have the opportunity to appeal a decision or the outcome of a review; and
 - s. they will not be treated differently, less favourably, or victimised because they have raised their matter.
2. The University expects that a student who requests a review of an academic decision, or any academic matter as provided for in clause 4.2 of this policy, will:
 - t. act in accordance with this policy and the related procedures;
 - u. act in accordance with the Student Conduct Rules and the policies referred to therein; and
 - v. submit only information that is true, correct and relevant to the review request or appeal.
3. A student may raise any academic matter anonymously and expect that the University will examine the matter, understanding that the resolution of academic matters may be limited by the absence of an identified student.
4. A student may seek support from a support person at any time before or during the review and appeal process.
5. The Student Ombudsman is an independent and impartial senior officer who is responsible for investigating student appeals in relation to academic matters. The Student Ombudsman will act in accordance with the Terms of Reference set out in Schedule 1.
6. The University is committed to the principles of continuous improvement and will:
 - w. monitor and report annually on reviews and appeals to identify trends and in response undertake proactive measures to minimise or eradicate subsequent issues; and
 - x. make a record of any amendments to existing policy or procedures, or the approval of new policy and procedures, that are made in response to issues arising from an individual academic matter or from systemic issues. Such records will be included in annual reporting.

5 The Review and Appeal Process

1. The Procedures for the Review of Marks or Grades and Other Academic Decisions, (Coursework) support the application of this policy. These procedures outline:
 - y. stages in the review and appeals process;
 - z. reasons that must be presented as the basis of a review of mark or grade request;
 - aa. responsibilities of staff undertaking roles in the review and appeals process;
 - bb. administration and monitoring requirements;
 - cc. the application of, and extension to, time limits; and
 - dd. support for students engaged in the review and appeal process.

6 External Complaints

1. A student who is dissatisfied with the manner in which a review or an appeal was handled and believes that there was maladministration on the part of the university, may take their matter to an agency external to the University.
2. A student may make a complaint to the NSW Ombudsman where they believe there is evidence of wrong conduct by the University, as described under section 26 (1) of the Ombudsman Act 1974 (NSW Government Legislation).
3. The NSW Ombudsman provides information to the public on making complaints on the following website: <https://www.ombo.nsw.gov.au/what-we-do/our-work/universities>

7 Time Limits for Reviews and Appeals

1. The University applies time limits to both the submission and the investigation of reviews and appeals, to ensure that students have an informed and timely resolution process.
2. Time limits and extensions to time limits, are provided for in the relevant procedure.
3. The University monitors and reports on its performance against time limits to identify recurrent or systemic issues and generate improvements.

8 Conflict of Interest

1. A staff member with a real or perceived conflict of interest in relation to a student, a review request or an appeal, must disqualify themselves from the investigation and request that an alternative staff member be appointed.
2. A staff member involved in the investigation of a review or appeal will not be involved in reviewing the same matter again at a later stage.

9 Record Keeping

1. All records relating to review requests and appeals will be retained and disposed of in accordance with the UOW Records Management Policy.

10 Roles & Responsibilities

1. All people involved in a review or an appeal of an academic decision have a responsibility to conduct themselves in accordance with this policy and the related procedures.
2. The University is responsible for:
 - ee. ensuring that this policy is accessible and communicated to all staff and students;
 - ff. ensuring that this policy is implemented and applied consistently across all faculties, academic units and collaborative delivery partners;
 - gg. providing procedures that enable a consistent, timely, fair and confidential process for resolving formal requests to review an academic decision, including a mark or grade, or appeal the outcome of a review; and
 - hh. promoting best practice in handling reviews and appeals.
3. Faculties, the Academic Quality and Standards Unit and the Student Ombudsman have responsibility to monitor the occurrence and nature of reviews and appeals to ensure that action is taken to address underlying causes.

11 Version Control and Change History

Version Control	Date Effective	Approved By	Amendment

Schedule 1 - Terms of Reference - Student Ombudsman

1. Overview

1. At the University of Wollongong the Student Ombudsman operates as an independent and impartial officer responsible for the review of student appeals in relation to academic matters. The Student Ombudsman's office provides advice and assistance to students and staff in respect of these matters.

2. Principles

1. The following provisions will regulate the operation of the Student Ombudsman:
 - a. the Student Ombudsman is a senior academic member of staff of the University.
 - b. the Student Ombudsman will not consider an appeal if the Student Ombudsman has a conflict of interest.
 - c. in the event that the Student Ombudsman has a conflict of interest or is otherwise unable to consider an appeal, the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Education) will appoint an acting Student Ombudsman in relation to that appeal.
 - d. the Student Ombudsman will respect the confidentiality of information provided in the performance of the role.
 - e. the Student Ombudsman will strive to operate as informally as possible in performing the role.
 - f. staff and students at the University will, at all times, cooperate with the Student Ombudsman in order that the Student Ombudsman may effectively discharge the functions of the office.
 - g. students and staff shall not suffer unfair or unreasonable treatment as a result of submitting an appeal to the Student Ombudsman or as a result of cooperating or participating in an investigation of an appeal.

3. Powers and Responsibilities

1. The Student Ombudsman has the following powers:
 - a. to request information, that is relevant to an appeal, from any member of staff or a committee of the University;
 - b. to interpret and apply University policy, but not to make or amend University policy;
 - c. to resolve appeals and determine outcomes in accordance with the relevant University policy; and
 - d. to act within the confines of the powers of the University, and not beyond these confines.
2. The Student Ombudsman is not subject to direction from any officer of the University with respect to the investigation of, or decision on, an appeal.
3. The Student Ombudsman must provide reasons for their decision on an appeal.

4. Where the Student Ombudsman decides to make further enquiries in relation to a person whose decisions, actions or omissions are the subject of an appeal, the Student Ombudsman will provide this person with a reasonable opportunity to respond before the finalisation of the matter.

4. Referral of Other Complaints or Concerns

1. In addition to the mandated role of the Student Ombudsman in relation to appeals under University of Wollongong policy, a member of the University Senior Executive may refer any complaint or a concern in writing to the Student Ombudsman for investigation or for review provided that:
 - a. the complaint is a matter concerning a student or that impacts on student matters; and
 - b. the complaint is one in respect of which there is no established internal process under a University policy document for investigation, review or appeal of the complaint.

5. Reporting

1. In February each year the Student Ombudsman will present to the Vice-Chancellor an annual report on academic review and appeal matters in the preceding year. The annual report will also be provided to the University Council, Academic Senate and to subcommittees of Academic Senate where relevant or as required.
2. The Student Ombudsman's Report may be delivered in conjunction with other annual reports as relevant to the office, including reports on student academic reviews and appeals, student complaints, and annual academic misconduct reporting.
3. The report will include:
 - a. an overview of the business undertaken by the office of the Student Ombudsman for the year;
 - b. analysis of Higher Degree Research and coursework student academic reviews and appeals data and outcomes;
 - c. analysis of academic misconduct appeals data and outcomes;
 - d. analysis of course progress appeals data and outcomes;
 - e. analysis of other complaints and concerns referred to the Student Ombudsman;
 - f. systemic issues of concern identified by the Student Ombudsman;
 - g. professional development and networking activities undertaken by, or delivered by, the Student Ombudsman; and
 - h. recommendations in relation to, but not limited to:
 - i. the University's policy and procedures,
 - ii. improvements to policy implementation and communication, and
 - iii. staff knowledge and development opportunities.
4. The report may contain references to specific matters dealt with by the Student Ombudsman in the year but taking care to protect the identity of any individuals.
