Inaugural StatsWeek Conference a Great success

26 FEBRUARY | 2014

The National Institute for Applied Statistics Research Australia (NIASRA) hosted more than 100 professional and academic researchers during StatsWeek 2014 in early February.

StatsWeek consisted of three events running from 3-7 February: A one-and-a-half-day course on spatio-temporal statistical modelling was delivered by Professor Peter Diggle of Lancaster University (UK) and Distinguished Professor Noel Cressie of UOW; a two-day lesson on nonparametric statistics was taught by Olivier Thas of Ghent University (Belgium); while the 6th Applied Statistics Education and Research Collaboration Conference saw keynote speeches by Dr. Bronwyn Harch, Chief of CSIRO's Computational Informatics (CCI) and Professor Peter Diggle.
