

DIET967: Dietetics Care 1

Subject Outline

12 credit points

Subject Information

Autumn, 2024, Wollongong
On Campus

On-Campus Delivery This subject is delivered in-person and includes on-campus or other location-based learning activities that cannot be undertaken by students studying Online/Distance. Students unable to attend campus or any other nominated physical delivery location should not enrol in this subject.

Subjects with a delivery mode of On Campus and/or Flexible with International Student enrolments will be delivered in accordance with the ESOS National Code. That is, online learning experiences (such as lectures, tuition, and resources) will be supplementary to in-person learning experiences such as scheduled classes and/or scheduled contact hours.

UOW may need to change teaching locations, teaching delivery and/or assessment delivery at short notice to ensure the safety and well-being of students and staff in response to the COVID-19 pandemic or other public health requirements.

The Faculty of Science, Medicine and Health

The Faculty of Science, Medicine and Health offers a range of undergraduate and postgraduate programs designed to meet the needs of a diverse student population. We carry out world-leading research which is strongly aligned with our teaching program.

As a student of our faculty, you will be actively engaged in learning with extensive clinical experiences, use of advanced educational technologies and opportunities for enriching work experience. More information about the Faculty of Science, Medicine and Health and our School is available on our web pages:
<https://www.uow.edu.au/science-medicine-health/>

Expectations of Students

UOW values are intellectual openness, excellence and dedication, empowerment and academic freedom, mutual respect and diversity, recognition and performance. We will provide a safe, equitable and orderly environment for the University community, and expect each member of our community to behave responsibly and ethically (UOW Student Conduct Rules <https://documents.uow.edu.au/about/policy/learning/index.html>).

We expect that students demonstrate these values and professional behaviour, both face to face and online, making genuine efforts to complete their studies successfully, arriving on time to class, taking part constructively in class discussions and activities, demonstrating appropriate professional and ethical conduct in all communication with UOW staff and community members, and submitting assignments on time (or completing a request for Academic Consideration in advance if needed).

Communication and eLearning Etiquette

Guidelines on the use of email to contact teaching staff, mobile phone use in class and information on the university guide to eLearning 'Netiquette' can be found at <https://www.uow.edu.au/student/learningcoop/software/email etiquette/index.html>

Guiding Communication Principles for Students

Moodle Announcements will be the primary platform for communication of general information to students

- Students should ensure they regularly check the main announcements forum at the top of each subject's Moodle site. Information distributed via a Moodle Announcement MAY not be duplicated on any other forum on the Moodle site.
- Moodle Discussion forums pertinent to specific assignments will be used but will not replace or be used for overarching subject announcements.
 - Assignment discussion forums for specific assignments will be clearly labelled in the forum description to identify the purpose of the forum (e.g. 'Please ask any questions you have about Assessment Task 1 in this discussion forum') - students should check and ask any assignment questions on these forums and not through email.
 - The Moodle assignment discussion forums should always be used in the first instance when inquiring about assessment tasks.
- It is the student's responsibility to check all subject Moodle sites regularly for information and notifications.

SOLS messages will be used for all central communication relating to the following:

- Administrative matters relating to student enrolment
- Critical information relating to course or subject, e.g. Changes to assignments, policy updates, class cancellations or changes
- Timetable information
- Security and emergency information
- Students are encouraged to check SOLS messages daily as these messages are often of high priority

SOLS and Moodle announcements can NOT be responded to.

Email

- Communication to UOW staff by students should only be via a UOW email account
- In relation to assessment questions, Moodle assignment forums should be used rather than email.

Remember to use the same principles when communicating online as you would face-to-face. Be clear and respectful and communicate with the same consideration you would expect from others.

Learning Outcomes

Subject Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this subject, students will be able to:

1. Adopts an evidence based approach to dietetic practice by demonstrating knowledge of nutrition, social and behavioural sciences, health, disease, food, food preparation methods, and sustainability to tailor recommendations to improve the health and nutrition outcomes of infants, children and adults living with and without disease
2. Undertakes nutrition assessments in collaboration with individuals by collecting, analysing and interpreting relevant health, medical, cultural, social, psychological, economic, personal, environmental and dietary intake data
3. Makes appropriate nutrition diagnoses and identifies priority nutrition problems requiring nutrition intervention
4. Develops person centred, goal oriented, nutrition interventions (nutrition prescriptions, dietary strategies, meal plans and recipes) which aim to address the nutrition problems impacting on the health and disease of individuals
5. Displays effective active listening, interviewing and interpersonal skills and considers health literacy when translating technical information into practical written and verbal advice on food and eating when communicating with individuals and groups
6. Uses client centred counselling skills to negotiate and facilitate nutrition, behaviour and lifestyle change and empower clients with self -management skills
7. Implements, evaluates and adapts nutrition care plans for individuals to improve health and nutrition outcomes
8. Recognises and respects the diversity of other professionals' roles, responsibilities and competencies as well as problems which require referral to other health professionals
9. Documents the nutrition care process using accepted standards
10. Write plans and demonstrate skills in small group facilitation
11. Demonstrates reflective practice in collaboration with dietitian supervisors/subject coordinators and peers
12. Develops knowledge and skills in cultural safety and responsiveness
13. Actively engage in resource development to improve dietetic care

Subject Description

Dietetics concerns the relationship between food and nutrition and health. The subject focuses attention on the nutrition and dietetic care of individuals, particularly in the community where nutritional intervention will improve or support quality of life. As the first two dietetics subjects concerned with the management of individuals, this subject will introduce you to the theoretical knowledge that forms the foundation of safe and effective practice in individual case management and some aspects of delivery of care in the community such as outpatient or other group settings. This will include introduction to the theory and practice of communication in the professional dietetic work environment with emphasis on individual client counselling and small group and community nutrition education. The focus of this professional skills based subject is the development of written and verbal communication skills and professional attributes required for working in nutrition and dietetic practice.

Course Handbook

Information about subject pre-requisites, co-requisites and restrictions as well as course completion requirements and Course Learning Outcomes can be found in the Course Handbook

<https://www.uow.edu.au/handbook/index.html>.

Subject Details: Practical Activities, eLearning, Readings and Materials

Subject eLearning

The University uses the eLearning system Moodle to support all coursework subjects. The subject Moodle site can be accessed via your SOLS page.

Safety Guidelines

The rules below are general rules that are required when participating in labs or practical activities. Before commencing these activities you are to ensure that you understand specific procedures and policy related to safety.

- All first year students undertaking Chemistry (CHEM101/102/104/105) must complete the Moodle WHS Induction (see details below)
- Before commencing any activity you are to ensure that you understand specific procedures and policy related to the lab in which you work and safety in general.
- You may need to review a Risk Assessment and complete a Participant Acknowledgement form before commencing any experiments/practical work. These materials will be made available by the lab supervisor/Subject Coordinator.
- You must inform the Subject Coordinator of any medical conditions which may impact upon your ability to participate in these activities before commencing the practical.
- All Reasonable Adjustment cases (Access Plans) must be discussed with the Subject Coordinator prior to commencing the activity.
- Participation in the lab/practical/field/simulation activities may be denied to students who do not abide by these, and other conditions which may be specified by the Subject Coordinator.
- Never use any equipment or attempt any experiment without checking the safety implications with your laboratory supervisor or experienced delegated laboratory worker.
- Undergraduate students are not permitted to work after hours unless there is appropriate approval and supervision.

EMBEDDED Work Integrated Learning

This subject contains elements of 'Embedded WIL'. Students in this subject will experience activities that relate to or simulate professional practice as part of their learning.

Major Text(s)

Textbooks

The following text is recommended for this subject and can be purchased online via The Australian Dietitian website.

- Rowan Stewart, Handbook of Clinical Nutrition and Dietetics 7th Edition

If there is a textbook available for purchase, you can find the details at University Bookshop <https://unishop.uow.edu.au/>

Recommended Readings and Other Resources

Recommended Readings

The following references complement the prescribed textbooks:

- Practice in Evidence Based Nutrition Database (PEN) available through UOW library
- Krause and Mahan Food & the Nutrition Care Process (15th Edition) by Kelly Morow and Janice L Raymond, (2020), CD Saunders: Philadelphia.
- Holli B, and Beto J, 7th edition (2017) Nutrition Counseling and Education Skills for Dietetics Professionals. Wolters Kluwer / Lippincott Williams and Wilkins, USA.
- Dietitians Australia DAA Nutrition Manual (9th edition). Canberra.
- Nutrition Care Process Terminology Manual (updated annually) Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics. Online access to this manual is available for Dietitians Australia student members.
- Essentials of Human Nutrition. (5th edition) Oxford University Press; Oxford. Mann J and Truswell AS (2017)

References may be purchased at the University Bookshop or copies obtained by contacting the University of Wollongong Library.

The following are located under the weekly folders on the eLearning site:

- Learning objectives for individual topics
- Copies of handouts of lecture handouts

Recommended readings are not intended as an exhaustive list, students should use the Library catalogue and databases to locate additional resources.

This is not an exhaustive list of references. Students should also use the library catalogue and databases to locate additional resources.

Lectures, Tutorials and Attendance Requirements

Lecture Times *

UOW may need to change teaching locations, teaching delivery and/or assessment delivery at short notice to ensure the safety and well-being of students and staff in response to the COVID-19 pandemic or other public health requirements.

Up to date timetable and delivery information is located at <http://www.uow.edu.au/student/timetables/index.html>

You can access your personal timetable by logging into SOLS and selecting 'My Timetable'

Lecture Program *

Week	Commencing	Topics Covered
	15 Apr 2024	Mid-Session Recess
	03 Jun 2024	Study Recess
	08 Jun 2024	Examinations
	15 Jun 2024	Examinations

* The above times and program may be subject to change. Students will be notified of any change via SOLS.

Additional Lecture Comments

The following are examples of the topics to be covered in this subject. This is not an exhaustive list and will be subject to change.

- National Competency Standards for Dietitians in Australia
- Professional practice skills including reflective practice
- Knowledge and skill development in applying the nutrition care process in clinical dietetic practice
- Dietetics care for:-
 - infants, children and adolescents including those with illness requiring nutrition intervention
 - women – focusing on fertility and pregnancy
 - elderly including those with malnutrition and dementia
 - people living with chronic disease such as obesity, heart disease, Type 2 diabetes, mental ill health and poor oral health
 - people living with coeliac disease and irritable bowel syndrome.
- Communication and person centred counselling skills
- Planning, facilitation and evaluation of nutrition education sessions for small groups
- Cultural safety and responsiveness in nutrition and dietetics

A Timetable of Topics will be available from the eLearning site in week 1 of session.

Lecture Recording

The University of Wollongong supports the recording of UOW educational content as a supplemental study tool, to provide students with equity of access, and as a technology-enriched learning strategy to enhance the student experience.

If you make your own recording of a lecture, class, seminar, workshop or any other educational session provided as part of your course of study you can only do so with the explicit permission of the lecturer and those people who are also being recorded.

You may only use educational content recorded through the delivery of subject or course content, whether they are your own or recorded by the university, for your own educational purposes. Recordings cannot be altered, shared or published on another platform, without permission of the University, and to do so may contravene the University's Copyright Policy, Privacy Policy, Intellectual Property Policy, IT Acceptable Use Policy and Student Conduct Rules. Unauthorised sharing of recordings may also involve a breach of law under the Copyright Act 1969.

Most lectures in this subject will be recorded, when they are scheduled in venues that are equipped with lecture recording technology, and made available via the subject Moodle site within 48 hours.

Your Privacy - Lecture Recording

In accordance with the Student Privacy & Disclosure Statement, when undertaking our normal teaching and learning activities, the University may collect your personal information. This collection may occur incidentally during the recording of lectures in equipped venues (i.e. when your identity can be ascertained by your image, voice or opinion), or via the delivery of online content therefore the University further advises students that:

- Lecture recordings are made available to students, university staff, and affiliates, securely on the university's IT Platforms and via the subject Moodle eLearning site;
- Recordings are made available only for the purpose for which they were recorded, for example, as a supplemental study tool or to support equity and access to educational resources;
- Recordings are stored securely for up to four years

If you have any concerns about the use or accuracy of your personal information collected in a lecture recording, you may approach your Subject Coordinator to discuss your particular circumstances.

The University is committed to ensuring your privacy is protected. If you have a concern about how your personal information is being used or managed please refer to the University's Privacy Policy or consult our Privacy webpage <https://www.uow.edu.au/privacy/>

Recent Improvements to Subject

The Faculty of Science, Medicine and Health is committed to continual improvement in teaching and learning. In assessing teaching and learning practices in a subject, the Faculty takes into consideration student feedback from many sources. These sources include direct student feedback to tutors and lecturers, feedback through Science, Medicine and Health Central, responses to the Subject and Course Evaluation Surveys. These important student responses are used to make ongoing changes to subjects and courses. This information is also used to inform systemic comprehensive reviews of subjects and courses.

- i. The subject learning outcomes were reviewed in the context of the Sustainable Development Goals (2020).
- ii. A review of all topics covered in both of the Dietetics Care subjects (DIET 467 and DIET 468) was undertaken in 2019. This has resulted in a redistribution of topics across the two subjects. This is to better align topics taught in Dietetics Care 1 with medical nutritional therapy commonly practised in the ambulatory care (outpatient/private practice) setting and topics taught in Dietetics Care 2 with medical nutritional therapy commonly practised in the acute care hospital setting.
- iii. In 2024, students will collaborate with exercise science students to participate in developing their skills in interprofessional practice.

Extraordinary Changes to the Subject Outline

In extraordinary circumstances the provisions stipulated in this Subject Outline may require amendment after the Subject Outline has been distributed. All students enrolled in the subject must be notified and have the opportunity to provide feedback in relation to the amendment, where practicable, prior to the amendment being finalised.

Learning Analytics

Learning Analytics data (such as student engagement with Moodle, access to recorded lectures, University Library usage, task marks, and use of SOLS) may be used by the Subject Coordinator and your faculty's Head of Students to assist in analysing student engagement, and to identify and recommend support to students who may be at risk of failure. If you have questions about the kinds of data the University uses, how we collect it, and how we protect your privacy in the use of this data, please refer to <https://www.uow.edu.au/about/privacy/index.html>

Section B: Assessment

Assessment Summary

Assessment Item	Form of Assessment	%
Assessment 1	Lab/Prac/Simulation	30%
Assessment 2	Exam	20%
Assessment 3	Exam	50%
	TOTAL MARKS	100%

Please note: Copies of student work may be retained by the University in order to facilitate quality assurance of assessment processes.

A formative assessment activity (with written or verbal feedback) will be conducted before census date - please see UOW Key Dates.

Assessment submission	Online via subject eLearning site (Moodle) and in class.
Assessment return	Assessments will be returned within 3 weeks of submission.
Detailed information	Students will be required to complete tasks related to the nutrition care process when providing dietetic care to people living with a disease requiring medical nutrition therapy. Details about the submission, length, style and format for each component of this assessment task will be made available on your eLearning site by week 1 of session.

Assessment 2: Exam - OSCE oral VIVA Exam - Oral Viva Nutrition Assessment

Marking Criteria	The marking criteria will be made available on your eLearning site by week 1 of session.
Length	Details of length of time for the OSCE will be made available on your eLearning site at least two four weeks prior to the assessment.
Weighting	20%
Assessment Due	Week beginning 20 May 2024 (In lecture in Session Week 12)
Type of Collaboration	Individual assessment

Style and format	Oral and written objective structured clinical exam - person centred dietary counselling.
Assessment submission	Due Week 12: Students will be timetabled on one of the following dates:- Wednesday 22 May OR Thursday 23 May or Friday 24 May 2024. Submit a hardcopy of documents completed during the exam to the dietitian examiner at the conclusion of the OSCE.
Assessment return	Feedback and assessment return will be provided within 2 weeks of dietary counselling OSCE completion.
Detailed information	Students will be required to undertake an oral and written dietary counselling consultation with a simulated client.

Assessment 3: Exam - Final Exam - Problem centred case studies, short answers and MCQs

Marking Criteria	Examinations are prepared by subject coordinators and reviewed by two academic staff for suitability of mark allocation.
Length	3 hours
Weighting	50%
Assessment Due	07 Jun 2024 (Friday in Study Recess Week 1)
Type of Collaboration	Individual assessment
Style and format	Written examination paper
Detailed information	Written, on campus examination. Any material presented in the subject is potentially examinable. Students must achieve at least 60% in the exam to be able to proceed to study DIET 468: Dietetics Care 2

Minimum Requirements to Pass this Subject

To receive a clear pass in this subject a total mark of 50% or more must be achieved. In addition, failure to meet any of the minimum performance requirements is grounds for awarding a Technical Fail (TF) in the subject, even where total marks accumulated are greater than 50%.

The minimum performance requirements for this subject are:

- pass (at least 50%) in all assessment tasks
- obtain a mark of at least 60% in the final examination

Minimum Student Attendance and Participation

It is expected that students will allocate 24 hours per week to this subject, including any required class attendance, completion of prescribed readings and assessment tasks.

This is a professional subject where lectures and workshops cover dietetic theory and its application to clinical practice through simulated cases as well as in class skill development to ensure placement preparedness. Many lectures and workshops are also facilitated by clinical educators, placement supervisors and dietitian assessors. For these reasons, attendance at lectures/workshops/seminars and simulations is expected and considered compulsory. An academic consideration will need to be submitted for any absences which must also be discussed with the subject coordinators.

UOW Grade Descriptors

The UOW Grade Descriptors are general statements that communicate what our grades represent, in terms of standards of performance, and provide a frame of reference to ensure that assessment practice across the University is appropriate, consistent and fair. Grade Descriptors are expressed in general terms so that they are applicable to a broad range of disciplines. Grade Descriptors are available here

<https://www.uow.edu.au/student/exams/results/>. For more information on the UOW grade descriptors refer to the Teaching and Assessment: Assessment and Feedback Policy:

<https://documents.uow.edu.au/about/policy/alphalisting/UOW222910.html>

Submission, Retention and Collection of Written Assessment

Assessed work must be handed in by the date and time listed under each assessment task. All assessment tasks must represent the enrolled student's own ORIGINAL work and must not have been previously submitted for assessment in any formal course of study.

Extensions

Students requesting extensions of time to submit an assessment task, deferred exam, alternative form of assessment or exemption of a compulsory attendance requirement must apply online via SOLS and provide documentary evidence within three working days of the assessable item's due date for their request to be considered. For information on the Policy, eligibility and how to apply see:
<https://www.uow.edu.au/student/admin/academic-consideration/>

Late Submission Penalty

Late submissions will receive a penalty of 5% per day (or part thereof) of the total possible marks for the assessment task for up to ten (10) days after the due date and time for submission (including weekends, and public holidays), or, where an extension has been granted, for up to ten (10) days after the nominated extension deadline. For the purposes of this penalty a weekend (Saturday and Sunday) will be regarded as two days.

No marks will be awarded for work submitted:

- more than ten (10) days after the due date, or
- after the assessment has been returned to the students; whichever is applicable.

In such an instance, a mark of zero and a result of Fail for the task will be applied.

Note: Assessments must still be submitted to meet minimum performance requirements even though no mark is to be awarded.

Quiz Completion

Where there is a quiz component, any student who has not attempted and submitted a quiz within the specified timeframe will receive 0 (zero) marks for this assessment type. The quiz will not be reopened, and no alternative assessment will be set without extenuating circumstances and an approved academic consideration application. Late penalties do not apply to quizzes. If a student attempts a quiz but for technical issues is not able to submit the quiz, students must show evidence and apply for an academic consideration to sit a supplementary quiz.

Collection

Students will be notified when they can collect or view their marked assessment. In accordance with University Policy marked assessments will usually only be held for 21 days after the declaration of marks for that assessment.

Retention

The university may retain copies of student work in order to facilitate quality assurance of assessment processes, in support of the continuous improvement of assessment design, assessment marking and for the review of the subject. The University retains records of students' academic work in accordance with the University Records Management Policy and the State Records Act 1988 and uses these records in accordance with the University Privacy Policy and the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998.

Scaling

Marks awarded for any assessment task or part of any assessment task, including an examination may be subject to scaling at the end of the session. Marks will be scaled only when unpredicted circumstances occur and in order to ensure fairness of marking across groups of students. The method of scaling will depend on the type of scaling required by the circumstances. When scaling is deemed necessary, it will follow a detailed consideration by the Unit Assessment Committee and/or the Faculty Assessment Committee of the marks of the group of students concerned. Scaling will not affect any individual student's rank order within their cohort. For more information please refer to Standards for the Finalisation of Student Results Schedule 1: Scaling Guidelines <https://www.uow.edu.au/about/policy/UOW039331.html> for details.

Supplementary Assessment

Supplementary assessment may be offered to students whose performance in this subject is close to that required to pass the subject, and are otherwise identified as meriting an offer of a supplementary assessment. The Subject Coordinator will determine the precise form of supplementary assessment at the time the offer of a supplementary is made. In some circumstances you may be offered a supplementary exam. For more information about Supplementary Exams refer to: <http://www.uow.edu.au/student/exams/aboutsupp/index.html>

Review and Appeal of Academic Decisions

A student may request an explanation of a mark for an assessment task or a final grade for a subject consistent with the student's right to appropriate and useful feedback on their performance in an assessment task. A student may also seek further explanation for other academic decisions such as Academic Consideration, Supplementary Assessment or Credit for Prior Learning. If a student is not satisfied with the explanation, or have further concerns, they may have grounds for a formal review. For further information refer to <https://documents.uow.edu.au/about/policy/students/UOW189967.html>

Assessment Quality Cycle

The UOW Assessment Quality Cycle provides a level of assurance that assessment practices across the University are appropriate, consistent and fair. Quality assurance activities are undertaken to support the continuous improvement of assessment and promote good practices in relation to assessment design, marking and review of the subject prior to subsequent delivery.

Academic Integrity

The University's Academic Integrity Policy, faculty handbook and subject guides clearly set out the University's expectation that students submit only their own original work for assessment and avoid plagiarising the work of others or cheating. Re-using any of your own work (either in part or in full) which you have submitted previously for assessment is not permitted without appropriate acknowledgement. Plagiarism can be detected and has led to students being expelled from the University.

The use by students of any website that provides access to essays or other assessment items (sometimes marketed as 'resources'), is extremely unwise. Students who provide an assessment item (or provide access to an assessment item) to others, either directly or indirectly (for example by uploading an assessment item to a website) are considered by the university to be intentionally or recklessly helping other students to cheat. Uploading an assessment task, subject outline or other course materials without express permission of the University is considered academic misconduct and students place themselves at risk of being expelled from the University.

Students should visit the following University website and become familiar with the University's policy on plagiarism <https://www.uow.edu.au/about/policy/UOW058648.html>
