

VIRTUAL
INTERNSHIPS

Navigating the Future of Work

An Introduction to Virtual Internships

A Three-Part Webinar Series for Students

As internships head virtual, VI wants to support students in understanding the great opportunities that exist for remote work experiences, and tips for success during and after the internship. Join us for quick and informative webinars that will allow students to learn the foundations of success and ask key questions as they review their opportunities for remote internships

20 Minutes of
Content

10 minutes of Discussion

1 PDF Guide as Takeaway

All content Uploaded for download

8 Reasons to Consider a Virtual internship this Summer

Co-Presenters:

Andy Radelet, Head of Program Experiences & Jillian Low, Director of University Partnerships

Webinar will explore why a remote internship may be the perfect fit for a student this summer as well as next year, preparing all for the future of work

How to Succeed in a Remote Internship

Co-Presenters:

Tyler DeVice, Social Media Manager & Waverley Miller, Program Experience Manager

Applying their experience of working with remote teams across the globe and years supporting international internships, this webinar will give the foundational tips for success.

From Virtual to In-Person, Applying Transferable Skills for Success

Presenters:

Jessica Rutkowski & Kelen Townsend, University Partnerships Managers

Completing a remote internship can allow you to apply the experience and skills to future employment opportunities. Learn steps to identify your skills and apply them to your future career management.

Register for May 13th HERE

Register for May 20th HERE

Register for May 27th HERE

All Webinars are on a Wednesday and will begin at 1:00 PM EST

Virtualinternships.com

hello@virtualinternships.com